

Florida Public Service Commission

SPECIAL REPORT

AUGUST 2004 NO. 8

Application for Authority to Transfer Certificate Nos. 620-W and 533-S in Highlands County from the Woodlands of Lake Placid, L.P. to L.P. Utilities Corporation

L.P. Utilities Corporation (L.P.) has filed applications for authority to (1) transfer the utility facilities of The Woodlands of Lake Placid, L.P. (Woodlands) to L.P., (2) transfer the L.P. wastewater system to Camp Florida Property Owners Association, Inc. (Camp Florida) and cancel Certificate No. 533-S, and (3) transfer majority organizational control of the L.P. water system to Camp Florida.

Woodlands provides water and wastewater service in Highlands County to 338 residential customers and 2 general service customers located within the Lake Placid Camp Florida Resort (Resort), and water service to 38 residential customers and 4 general service customers located outside of the Resort.

The customer hearings are being conducted near the service territory to hear public comments regarding L.P.'s application for transfers. The hearings will allow customers the opportunity to provide input to the Public Service Commission (PSC). Customer input will become part of the official record for this case and will assist Commissioners in reaching their decision. In accordance with Florida Statutes, the PSC will consider the financial and technical ability of the applicant and whether the transfers are in the public interest and should be approved.

The technical portion of the administrative hearing is scheduled for August 11-12, 2004 in Sebring, Florida. A final decision is scheduled to be made at the October 19, 2004, Agenda Conference in Tallahassee.

PSC COMMISSIONERS

Chairman Baez

Braulio L. Baez was appointed to the Florida Public Service Commission by Governor Jeb Bush on August 23, 2000, to complete a term ending January 2002. He was then reappointed by the Governor to a four year term ending January 2006. Prior to his appointment, Chairman Baez was an attorney in Miami, Florida, with a statewide practice representing municipal and county governments in telecommunications, cable franchising and other regulatory matters. He was Executive Assistant to Commissioner Joe Garcia from 1994 to 1998. A native of South Florida, Chairman Baez received his undergraduate degree from Florida International University in 1988, and his Juris Doctorate degree from Nova University, Shepard Broad Law Center, in 1993. Chairman Baez is a member of the National Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners' Committees on Electricity and International Relations. He is Past-President of the Southeastern Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners and has served on the North American Electric Reliability Council. A member of the Florida Bar, he is a past Director of the Hispanic Bar Association, 2nd Judicial District.

Commissioner Deason

J. Terry Deason was first appointed to the Commission by the Florida Public Service Commission Nominating Council in January 1991 for a term ending in January 1995. He was subsequently reappointed by the late Governor Lawton Chiles for a term ending in January 1999. Commissioner Deason was then reappointed by Governor Jeb Bush to a term ending in January 2003, and to his current term which ends in January 2007. Commissioner Deason has served as Chairman of the Commission on two occasions, from January 1993 to January 1995, and from July 2000 to January 2001. Commissioner Deason is an active member of the National Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners (NARUC). He currently serves on NARUC's Board of Directors, its Finance and Technology Committee, and the Federal/State Joint Conference on Accounting. Commissioner Deason also serves on the executive committee for the Nuclear Waste Strategy Coalition. Prior to his appointment, he served as Chief Regulatory Analyst in the Office of Public Counsel. In that capacity, he was responsible for the coordination of accounting and financial analysis used by the Public Counsel in cases before the Public Service Commission, presented testimony as an expert witness, and consulted with the Public Counsel on technical issues and ratemaking policies concerning regulated utilities in the State of Florida. From 1981 to 1987, Commissioner Deason served as Executive Assistant to PSC Commissioner Gerald L. Gunter, during which time he reviewed and analyzed staff recommendations and advised the Commissioner on those recommendations and other pertinent policy determinations. From 1977 to 1981, he served as a Legislative Analyst with the Office of Public Counsel. He attended the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, and in 1975 received his bachelor of science degree in accounting, summa cum laude, from Florida State University. He also received his master of accounting degree from FSU in 1989.

Commissioner Jaber

Lila A. Jaber was appointed to the Florida Public Service Commission by Governor Jeb Bush in February 2000 to complete a term ending January 2001. She was reappointed by Governor Jeb Bush for a term ending in January 2005. Commissioner Jaber served as Chairman of the Florida Public Service Commission from January 2002 through January 5, 2004. As a Commissioner, she also serves as Vice Chair of the NARUC (National Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners) Committee on Telecommunications and is a member of the NARUC Committee on Consumer Affairs. In July 2001, she was appointed by the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) to the Federal-State Joint Board on Universal Service which was created to promote the availability and access to quality telecommunications services throughout the Nation. Commissioner Jaber has served as chair of the Federal-State Joint Conference on Advanced Services (706 Joint Conference) created by the FCC to promote the rapid deployment of advanced services to all Americans. She has also served as co-chair of the e-Infrastructure Subcommittee for the Florida Information Service Technology Development Task Force (ITFlorida.com), and is currently an ex-officio member of the Florida Research Consortium, the affiliate of ITFlorida.com, created as a partnership between Florida's universities and technology sectors to focus on high-tech research and development. Prior to serving on the Florida Public Service Commission, Commissioner Jaber was a bureau chief in the Commission's Division of Legal Services for water and wastewater, where she implemented law and policy in the regulation of more than 1,500 water and wastewater facilities, and subsequently, became the Executive Assistant to Commissioner Julia L. Johnson. Commissioner Jaber, a court-certified mediator and a member of the Florida Bar, received a bachelor of arts degree in political science and business from Stetson University in DeLand, Florida, and received a juris doctorate from the Stetson University College of Law in St. Petersburg, Florida.

Commissioner Bradley

Rudolph (Rudy) Bradley was appointed to the Florida Public Service Commission by Governor Jeb Bush for a four year term beginning January 8, 2002. Commissioner Bradley serves on the National Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners' Committees on Consumer Affairs, Water, and International Relations. He is also a member of the Energy Market Access Partnership Board which is a joint project between the Department of Energy and the National Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners. Prior to his appointment to the Commission, Commissioner Bradley served as a member of the Florida Legislature for seven years representing District 55 which includes Pinellas, Manatee and Hillsborough Counties. As a member of the Legislature, he served as the Vice Chairman of the Utilities and Telecommunications Committee and as the Chairman of the Select Committee on Energy Restructuring. Commissioner Bradley also served as the Chairman of the Business Development and International Trade Committee and Chairman of the Economic Development Council. As a legislator, Commissioner Bradley maintained a special interest in improving Florida's educational system and expanding business opportunities for all citizens. Commissioner Bradley earned his Bachelor of Science Degree from the University of Tampa and his Masters Degree from the University of Michigan. He served as an educator in Pinellas County for several years and he developed several private enterprises involving real estate and livestock.

Commissioner Davidson

Following the unanimous recommendation of the PSC Nominating Council, Governor Jeb Bush appointed Charles Davidson to the Florida Public Service Commission for a four-year term ending January 2007. Commissioner Davidson relocated from New York to Florida in 2000 to serve in the Office of Governor Bush, as the Executive Director of Florida's Information Technology Taskforce. In that role, he was responsible for developing public policies to help ensure that Florida maintains progressive economic development processes and rational regulatory regimes. In 2001, Davidson was recruited by the Florida House of Representatives to launch the state's first Committee on Information Technology. He currently serves ex officio as a member of the board of directors of ITFlorida, a statewide not-for-profit organization that is focused on developing sound technology-related public policies. From 1993 to 1999, Commissioner Davidson was an attorney resident in the New York Office of Baker & McKenzie, the world's largest law firm. In 1999, he joined the New York Office of Duane Morris with other attorneys from Baker & McKenzie to form a new international dispute resolution practice group. While in private practice, Davidson was responsible for an array of regulatory, commercial, international, and technology matters in the United States and abroad. His work included multi-jurisdiction antitrust disputes, compliance proceedings before the Department of Justice and the Securities & Exchange Commission, complex commercial dispute resolution, and international technology disputes. His work also included international commercial claims against the Government of Iran before the Iran-United States Claims Tribunal and claims against the Government of Iraq before the United Nations Compensation Commission. Commissioner Davidson has handled an array of domestic and international arbitrations and mediations. While in New York, Davidson served as Special Professor of Law at Hofstra University School of Law. Commissioner Davidson speaks frequently on technology and public policy issues. Recently, Commissioner Davidson testified before Congress on the regulatory treatment that should be afforded broadband technologies. Commissioner Davidson also recently testified before the FCC on the regulatory issues impacting and impacted by Voice over Internet Protocol (VoIP). A Phi Beta Kappa graduate, Commissioner Davidson holds a Masters of Law in Trade Regulation from New York University. He also holds a Masters in International Business from Columbia University. Davidson received his baccalaureate and juris doctorate degrees from the University of Florida, where he served as a fellowship instructor at the College of Law.

Consumer Statements at PSC Hearings

The Commissioners are interested in what consumers have to say about the applications for authority to (1) transfer the utility facilities of The Woodlands of Lake Placid, L.P. to L.P., (2) transfer the L.P. wastewater system to Camp Florida Property Owners Association, Inc. and cancel Certificate No. 533-S, and (3) transfer majority organizational control of the L.P. water system to Camp Florida. The main purpose of this hearing is to receive comments from the public.

Anyone may make a statement, and speaking is an effective way to let the Commissioners know how you feel about the case under review. Those consumers who wish to speak should arrive early. The hearing will begin as scheduled and continue until all the consumers have been heard.
