Dear Mr. Tribble:

870248-7L

Order No. 18066 dated August 27, 1987 ordered Centel to implement a discount toll plan (TOLL-PAC) between the Ponce de Leon and Bonifay exchanges. While writing the tariff, Centel realized the route between the exchanges is interLATA and properly belongs to AT&T.

In view of the possible legal ramifications of the order Centel requests clarification of the following points:

1. If the toll traffic belongs to AT&T can the Commission order Centel to implement TOLL-PAC on the route?
2. Since the route is intra company should the toll traffic belong to Centel even though it is interLATA?
3. When LEC Toll Bill and Keep is implemented on January 1, 1988 will this route belong to Centel as an intra company route or to AT&T as an interLATA route?

Centel was ordered to file a tariff for the Ponce de Leon/Bonifay route by September 28, 1987 but now requests a delay until the Commission clarifies to whom the toll belongs.

Very truly yours,

Sam E. Wahlen
General Regulatory Manager
