4. The proposed Southern Bell Tariff herein adversely affects the ability of the Attorney General and the Department of Legal Affairs to assist in the conduct of such investigations and prosecutions of those cases within its appropriate jurisdiction.

5. Should the Public Service Commission grant the Tariff as proposed the Attorney General and the Department of Legal Affairs and other similar situated law enforcement agencies would be substantially and adversely impacted. The interest of the Attorney General cannot be adequately represented by others who have intervened in this matter.

WHEREFORE, Robert A. Butterworth, Attorney General of Florida, respectfully moves to intervene in this docket.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT A. BUTTERWORTH
