ORDER APPROVING SUSPENSION OF TARIFF

BY THE COMMISSION:

On October 28, 1993, Gulf Power Company (Gulf) petitioned the Commission for approval of its revised Standby and Supplementary Service (SBS) rate schedule. Order No. 17159, issued February 6, 1987, in Docket No. 850673-EU - Generic Investigation of Standby Rates for Electric Utilities, clearly prescribes the cost allocation and rate design methodology to be used when developing standby and supplemental rates. The Order further prescribes the terms and conditions associated with the provision of such service. We find the proposed tariffs shall be suspended so the Commission staff can conduct discovery to determine whether the revised tariffs are reasonable and comport to Order No. 17159.

It is, therefore,

ORDERED by the Florida Public Service Commission that the proposed Standby and Supplementary Service (SBS) tariff filed by Gulf Power Company shall be suspended.

By ORDER of the Florida Public Service Commission, this 10th day of January, 1994.

The Florida Public Service Commission is required by Section 120.59(4), Florida Statutes, to notify parties of any administrative hearing or judicial review of Commission orders that is available under Sections 120.57 or 120.68, Florida Statutes, as well as the procedures and time limits that apply. This notice should not be construed to mean all requests for an administrative hearing or judicial review will be granted or result in the relief sought.

Any party adversely affected by this order, which is preliminary, procedural or intermediate in nature, may request: (1) reconsideration within 10 days pursuant to Rule 25-22.038(2), Florida Administrative Code, if issued by a Prehearing Officer; (2) reconsideration within 15 days pursuant to Rule 25-22.060, Florida Administrative Code, if issued by the Commission; or (3) judicial review by the Florida Supreme Court, in the case of an electric, gas or telephone utility, or the First District Court of Appeal, in the case of a water or wastewater utility. A motion for reconsideration shall be filed with the Director, Division of Records and Reporting, in the form prescribed by Rule 25-22.060, Florida Administrative Code. Judicial review of a preliminary, procedural or intermediate ruling or order is available if review of the final action will not provide an adequate remedy. Such review may be requested from the appropriate court, as described above, pursuant to Rule 9.100, Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure.
