2. What were Centel's total access revenues for 1992 and 1993, respectively, as a percentage of total revenues?

3. Has Centel produced any studies that demonstrate the effect on total expenses for small, medium, and large (as defined in the FCC) IXC's if its tariff were to go into effect as filed? If not, please estimate of how much and how long it would take Centel to produce such studies.

a. Please redact the names of the IXC's and include the calculations of one small, medium, and large IXC's actual interstate transport bill. Be sure to include the actual time frame used to calculate these bills.
