SUPRA TELECOMMUNICATIONS & INFORMATION SYSTEMS, INC.
REQUEST FOR CONFIDENTIAL CLASSIFICATION

Supra Telecommunications & Information Systems, Inc.

("Supra" or "Company"), hereby files, pursuant to Rule 25-22.006, Florida Administrative Code, its Request for Confidential Classification, and states the following:

1. Supra is filing a Request for Confidential Classification for the subject information because it is included in Exhibits OAR-4, OAR-5, OAR-7, and OAR-8 attached to the Prefiled Direct Testimony of Olukayode A. Ramos and in Exhibits BH-1, BH-2, BH-5, BH-6, BH-7, BH-8, BH-9, and BH-10 attached to the Prefiled Direct Testimony of Bradford Hamilton, all of which are being filed this date in this proceeding.

2. Supra has appended to this Request for Confidential Classification as Attachment A a listing of the location of the information in Olukayode A. Ramos' exhibits designated by Supra as confidential and as Attachment B a listing of the location of the information in Bradford Hamilton's exhibits designated by Supra as confidential.

3. Appended hereto as Attachment C are two copies of Olukayode A. Ramos' exhibits with the confidential information deleted and as Attachment D are two copies of Bradford Hamilton's exhibits with the confidential information deleted. Attachment E contains the original exhibits with the confidential information.

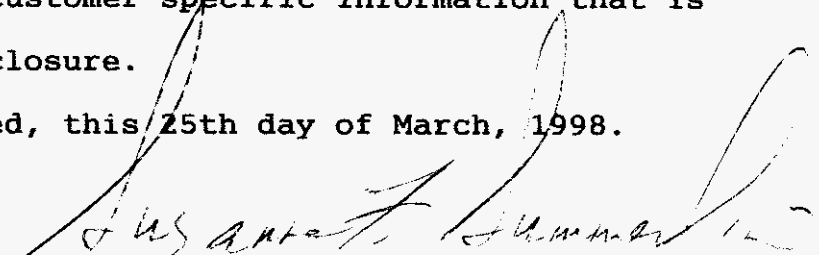

4. The exhibits contain information considered to be confidential and proprietary by Supra as Supra is required by Section 364.24, Florida Statutes, to keep this customer specific information confidential. This customer specific information includes customer names, addresses, and telephone numbers. Public disclosure of the customer specific information would violate Section 364.24, Florida Statutes. Therefore, such information should be classified as proprietary, confidential business information pursuant to Section 364.183, Florida Statutes. Accordingly, it should be held exempt from the public disclosure requirements of Section 119.07, Florida Statutes.

6. Supra has treated and intends to continue to treat the information for which confidential classification is sought as private, and this information has not been generally disclosed.

7. The original of this Notice has been filed with the Division of Records and Reporting, and a copy has been served on the parties of record.

WHEREFORE, based on the foregoing, Supra moves the Commission to enter an order declaring the information described above to be confidential customer specific information that is not subject to public disclosure.

Respectfully submitted, this 25th day of March, 1998.
