Dear Sir or Madams,

RE: your study # 980000A.SP
(Bill South)

I would like to address the issue of long distance information rates. If I call information in another state it costs 75¢. Where else can I get the telephone number unless I go to a large library with many telephone books? (Sometimes I do.) I think the company has people in a bind because of the difficulty of getting out-of-state phone numbers except from information. Why can't they be satisfied with the cost of the call and let information be free?

Yours,

Mrs. E.A. Doms)
