The terms of this Agreement shall remain in effect after the term of the existing agreement has expired and while a new agreement is being negotiated.

C. The rates pursuant by which Unique is to purchase services from BellSouth for resale shall be at a discount rate off of the retail rate for the telecommunications service. Unique agrees to compensate BellSouth for all BellSouth incurred expenditures associated with providing such information to Unique. Unique will adopt and adhere to the BellSouth guidelines associated with each method of providing customer record information.
 - T. BellSouth's retail voice mail service shall be available for resale at rates, terms and conditions as mutually agreed to by the parties.
- IV. BellSouth's Provision of Services to Unique
- A. Unique agrees that its resale of BellSouth services shall be as follows:
 1. The resale of telecommunications services shall be limited to users and uses conforming to the class of service restrictions.
 2. To the extent Unique is a telecommunications carrier that serves greater than 5 percent of the Nation's presubscribed access lines, Unique shall not jointly market its interLATA services with the telecommunications services purchased from BellSouth pursuant to this Agreement in any of the states covered under this Agreement. For the purposes of this subsection, to jointly market means any advertisement, marketing effort or billing in which the telecommunications services purchased from BellSouth for purposes of resale to customers and interLATA services offered by Unique are packaged, tied, bundled, discounted or offered together in any way to the end user. Such efforts include, but are not limited to, sales referrals, resale arrangements, sales agencies or billing agreements. This subsection shall be void and of no effect for a particular state covered under this Agreement as of February 8, 1999 or on the date BellSouth is authorized to offer interLATA services in that state, whichever is earlier.
 3. Hotel and Hospital PBX service are the only telecommunications services available for resale to Hotel/Motel and Hospital end users, respectively. Similarly, Access Line Services for Customer Provided Coin Telephones is the only local service available for resale to Independent Payphone Provider (IPP) customers. Shared Transit Service customers can only be sold those telecommunications services available in the Company's A23 Shared Transit Service Tariff.

4. Unique is prohibited from furnishing both flat and measured rate service on the same business premises to the same subscribers (end users) as stated in A2 of the Company's Tariff except for backup service as indicated in the applicable state tariff Section A3.

5. If telephone service is established and it is subsequently determined that the class of service restriction has been violated, Unique will be notified and billing for that service will be immediately changed to the appropriate class of service. Service charges for changes between class of service, back billing, and interest as described in this subsection shall apply at the Company's sole discretion. Interest shall be at a rate as set forth in Section A2 of the General Subscriber Service Tariff and Section B2 of the Private Line Service Tariff for the applicable state, compounded daily for the number of days from the back billing date to and including the date that Unique actually makes the payment to the Company may be assessed.

6. The Company reserves the right to periodically audit services purchased by Unique to establish authenticity of use. Such audit shall not occur more than once in a calendar year. Unique shall make any and all records and data available to the Company or the Company's auditor's on a reasonable basis. The Company shall bear the cost of said audit.

B. Resold services can only be used in the same manner as specified in the Company's Tariff. Resold services are subject to the same terms and conditions as are specified for such services when furnished to an individual end user of the Company in the appropriate section of the Company's Tariffs. Specific tariff features, e.g. a usage allowance per month, shall not be aggregated across multiple resold services. Resold services cannot be used to aggregate traffic from more than one end user customer except as specified in Section A23. of the Company's Tariff referring to Shared Tenant Service.

C. Unique may resell services only within the specific resale service area as defined in its certificate.

D. Telephone numbers transmitted via any resold service feature are intended solely for the use of the end user of the feature. Resale of this information is prohibited.

C. Unique or its end users may not rearrange, move, disconnect, remove or attempt to repair any facilities owned by the Company, other than by connection or disconnection to any interface means used, except with the written consent of the Company.

- D. Unique accepts responsibility to notify the Company of situations that arise that may result in a service problem.
- E. Unique will be the Company's single point of contact for all repair calls on behalf of Unique's end users. The parties agree to provide one another with toll-free contact numbers for such purposes.
- F. Unique will contact the appropriate repair centers in accordance with procedures established by the Company.
- G. For all repair requests, Unique accepts responsibility for adhering to the Company's prescreening guidelines prior to referring the trouble to the Company.
- H. The Company will bill Unique for handling troubles that are found not to be in the Company's network pursuant to its standard time and material charges. The standard time and material charges will be no more than what BellSouth charges to its retail customers for the same services.
- I. The Company reserves the right to contact Unique's customers, if deemed necessary, for maintenance purposes.

VI. Establishment of Service

- A. After receiving certification as a local exchange company from the appropriate regulatory agency, Unique will provide the appropriate Company service center the necessary documentation to enable the Company to establish a master account for Unique. Such documentation shall include the Application for Master Account, proof of authority to provide telecommunications services, an Operating Company Number ("OCN") assigned by the National Exchange Carriers Association ("NECA") and a tax exemption certificate, if applicable. When necessary deposit requirements are met, the Company will begin taking orders for the class of service.
- B. Service orders will be in a standard format designated by the Company.
- C. When notification is received from Unique that a current customer of the Company will subscribe to Unique's service, standard service order intervals for the appropriate class of service will apply.
- D. The Company will not require end user confirmation prior to establishing service for Unique's end user customer. Unique must, however, be able to demonstrate end user authorization upon request.
- E. Unique will be the single point of contact with the Company for all subsequent ordering activity resulting in additions or changes to resold services except that the Company will accept a request directly from the end user for conversion of the end user's service from Unique to the Company or will accept a request from another OLEC for conversion of the end user's service from the Unique to the other LEC. The Company will notify Unique that such a request has been processed.
- F. If the Company determines that an unauthorized change in local service to Unique has occurred, the Company will reestablish service with the appropriate local service provider and will assess Unique as the OLEC initiating the unauthorized change, an unauthorized change charge similar to that described in F.C.C.

Tariff No. 1, Section 13.3.3. Appropriate nonrecurring charges, as set forth in Section A4. of the General Subscriber Service Tariff, will also be assessed to Unique.

(a) each Residence or Business line	Nonrecurring Charge
	$19.41

- G. The Company will, in order to safeguard its interest, require Unique to make a deposit to be held by the Company as a guarantee of the payment of rates and charges, unless satisfactory credit has already been established. Any such deposit may be held during the continuance of the service as security for the payment of any and all amounts accruing for the service.
- H. Such deposit may not exceed two months' estimated billing.
- I. The fact that a deposit has been made in no way relieves Unique from complying with the Company's regulations as to advance payments and the prompt payment of bills on presentation nor does it constitute a waiver or modification of the regular practices of the Company providing for the discontinuance of service for non-payment of any sums due the Company.
- J. The Company reserves the right to increase the deposit requirements when, in its sole judgment, the conditions justify such action.
- K. In the event that Unique defaults on its account, service to Unique will be terminated and any deposits held will be applied to its account.
- L. In the case of a cash deposit, interest at the rate of six percent per annum shall be paid to Unique during the continuance of the deposit. Interest on a deposit shall accrue annually and, if requested, shall be annually credited to Unique by the accrual date.
- VII. Payment And Billing Arrangements
- A. When the initial service is ordered by Unique, the Company will establish an accounts receivable master account for Unique.
- B. The Company shall bill Unique on a current basis all applicable charges and credits.
- C. Payment of all charges will be the responsibility of Unique. Unique shall make payment to the Company for all services billed. The Company is not responsible for payments not received by Unique from Unique's customer. The Company will not become involved in billing disputes that may arise between Unique and its customer. Payments made to the Company as payment on account will be credited to an accounts receivable master account and not to an end user's account.

- D. The Company will render bills each month on established bill days for each of Unique's accounts.
- E. The Company will bill Unique, in advance, charges for all services to be provided during the ensuing billing period except charges associated with service usage, which charges will be billed in arrears. Charges will be calculated on an individual end user account level, including, if applicable, any charges for usage or usage allowances. BellSouth will also bill all charges, including but not limited to 911 and E911 charges, telecommunications relay charges, and franchise fees, to Unique.
- F. The payment will be due by the next bill date (i.e., same date in the following month as the bill date) and is payable in immediately available funds. Payment is considered to have been made when received by the Company.
- If the payment due date falls on a Sunday or on a Holiday which is observed on a Monday, the payment due date shall be the first non-Holiday day following such Sunday or Holiday. If the payment due date falls on a Saturday or on a Holiday which is observed on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, or Friday, the payment due date shall be the last non-Holiday day preceding such Saturday or Holiday. If payment is not received by the payment due date, a late payment penalty, as set forth in I. following, shall apply.
- G. Upon proof of tax exempt certification from Unique, the total amount billed to Unique will not include any taxes due from the end user. Unique will be solely responsible for the computation, tracking, reporting and payment of all federal, state and/or local jurisdiction taxes associated with the services resold to the end user.
- H. As the customer of record, Unique will be responsible for, and remit to the Company, all charges applicable to its resold services for emergency services (E911 and 911) and Telecommunications Relay Service (TRS) as well as any other charges of a similar nature.
- I. If any portion of the payment is received by the Company after the payment due date as set forth herein, or if any portion of the payment is received by the Company in funds that are not immediately available to the Company, then a late payment penalty shall be due to the Company. The late payment penalty shall be the portion of the payment not received by the payment due date times a late factor. The late factor shall be as set forth in Section A2 of the General Subscriber Service Tariff and Section B2 of the Private Line Service Tariff.
- J. Any switched access charges associated with interexchange carrier access to the resold local exchange lines will be billed by, and due to, the Company. No additional charges are to be assessed to Unique.
- K. The Company will not perform billing and collection services for Unique as a result of the execution of this Agreement. All requests for billing services should be referred to the appropriate entry or operational group within the Company.

L Pursuant to 47 CFR Section 51.617, the Company will bill the charges shown below which are identical to the EUCL rates billed by BST to its end users.

	Monthly Rate
1. Residential

M. In general, the Company will not become involved in disputes between Unique and Unique's end user customers over resale services. If a dispute does arise that cannot be settled without the involvement of the Company, Unique shall contact the designated Service Center for resolution. The Company will make every effort to assist in the resolution of the dispute and will work with Unique to resolve the matter in as timely a manner as possible. Unique may be required to submit documentation to substantiate the claim.

VIII. Discontinuance of Service

A. The procedures for discontinuing service to an end user are as follows:

1. Where possible, the Company will deny service to Unique's end user on behalf of, and at the request of, Unique. Upon restoration of the end user's service, reconnection charges will apply and will be the responsibility of Unique.
2. At the request of Unique, the Company will disconnect a Unique end user customer.
3. All requests by Unique for denial or disconnection of an end user for nonpayment must be in writing.
4. Unique will be made solely responsible for notifying the end user of the proposed disconnection of the service.
5. The Company will continue to process calls made to the Anonymous Call Center and will advise Unique when it is determined that anonymous calls are originated from one of their end user's locations. The Company shall be indemnified, defended and held harmless by Unique and/or the end user against any claim, loss or damage arising from providing this information to Unique. It is the responsibility of Unique to take the corrective action necessary with its customers who make anonymous calls. Failure to do so will result in the Company's disconnecting the end user's service.

B. The procedures for discontinuing service to Unique are as follows:

1. The Company reserves the right to suspend or terminate service for nonpayment or in the event of prohibited, unlawful or improper use of the facilities or service, abuse of the facilities, or any other violation or noncompliance by Unique of the rules and regulations of the Company's Tariffs.

2. If payment of account is not received by the bill day in the month after the original bill day, the Company may provide written notice to Unique, that additional applications for service will be refused and that any pending orders for service will not be completed if payment is not received by the fifteenth day following the date of the notice. If the Company does not refuse additional applications for service on the date specified in the notice, and Unique's noncompliance continues, nothing contained herein shall preclude the Company's right to refuse additional applications for service without further notice.
3. If payment of account is not received, or arrangements made, by the bill day in the second consecutive month, the account will be considered in default and will be subject to denial or disconnection, or both.
4. If Unique fails to comply with the provisions of this Agreement, including any payments to be made by it on the dates and times herein specified, the Company may, on thirty days written notice to the person designated by Unique to receive notices of noncompliance, discontinue the provision of existing services to Unique at any time thereafter. In the case of such discontinuance, all billed charges, as well as applicable termination charges, shall become due. If the Company does not discontinue the provision of the services involved on the date specified in the thirty days notice, and Unique's noncompliance continues, nothing contained herein shall preclude the Company's right to discontinue the provision of the services to Unique without further notice.
5. If payment is not received or arrangements made for payment by the date given in the written notification, Unique's services will be discontinued. Upon discontinuance of service on a Unique's account, service to Unique's end users will be denied. The Company will also reestablish service at the request of the end user or Unique upon payment of the appropriate connection fee and subject to the Company's normal application procedures.
6. If within fifteen days after an end user's service has been denied no contact has been made in reference to restoring service, the end user's service will be disconnected.

XIII. Waivers

Any failure by either party to insist upon the strict performance by the other party of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of any of the provisions of this Agreement, and each party, notwithstanding such failure, shall reserve the right thereafter to insist upon the specific performance of any and all of the provisions of this Agreement.

XIV. Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed and enforced in accordance with, the laws of the State of Georgia, without regard to its conflict of laws principles.

XV. Arm's Length Negotiations

XVI. More Favorable Provisions

A. The parties agree as follows:

1. the Federal Communications Commission ("FCC") or the Commission finds that the terms of this Agreement are inconsistent in one or more material respects with any of its or their respective decisions, rules or regulations, or

2. the FCC or the Commission preempts the effect of this Agreement, then, in either case, upon such occurrence becoming final and no longer subject to administrative or judicial review, the parties shall immediately commence good faith negotiations to conform this Agreement to the requirements of any such decision, rule, regulation or preemption. The revised agreement shall have an effective date that coincides with the effective date of the original FCC or Commission action giving rise to such negotiations. The parties agree that the rate, terms and conditions of any new agreement shall not be applied retroactively to any period prior to such effective date except to the extent that such retroactive effect is expressly required by such FCC or Commission decision, rule, regulation or preemption.

B. In the event that BellSouth, either before or after the effective date of this Agreement, enters into an agreement with any other telecommunications carrier (an "Other Retail Agreement") which provides for the provision within the state of Florida of any of the arrangements covered by this Agreement upon rates, terms or conditions that differ in any material respect from the rates, terms and conditions for such arrangements set forth in this Agreement ("Other Terms"). BellSouth shall be deemed thereby to have offered such other Resale Agreement to Unique in its entirety. In the event that Unique accepts such offer, such Other Terms shall be effective between BellSouth and Unique as of the date on which Unique accepts such offer.

C. In the event that after the effective date of this Agreement the FCC or the Commission enters an order (a "Resale Order") requiring BellSouth to provide within the state of Florida any of the arrangements covered by this agreement upon Other Terms, then upon such Resale Order becoming final and not subject to further administrative or judicial review, BellSouth shall be deemed to have offered such arrangements to Unique upon such Other Terms, in their entirety, which Unique may only accept in their entirety, as provided in Section XVI.E. In the event that Unique accepts such offer, such Other Terms shall be effective between BellSouth and Unique as of the date on which Unique accepts such offer.

D. In the event that after the effective date of this Agreement BellSouth files and subsequently receives approval for one or more interstate tariffs (each, a "Resale Tariff") offering to provide within the state of Florida any of the arrangements covered by this Agreement upon Other Terms, then upon such Resale Tariff becoming effective, BellSouth shall be deemed thereby to have offered such arrangements to Unique upon such Other Terms, which Unique may accept as provided in Section XVI.E. In the event that Unique accepts such offer, such Other Terms shall be effective between BellSouth and Unique as of the date on which Unique accepts such offer.

E. The terms of this Agreement, other than those affected by the Other Terms accepted by Unique, shall remain in full force and effect.

F. Corrective Payment In the event that -

1. BellSouth and Unique revise this Agreement pursuant to Section XVI.A. or

2. Unique accepts a deemed offer of an Other Resale Agreement or Other Terms, then BellSouth or Unique, as applicable, shall make a corrective payment to the other party to correct for the difference between the rates set forth herein and the rates in such revised agreement or Other Terms for substantially similar services for the period from the effective date of such revised agreement or Other Terms until the date that the parties execute such revised agreement or Unique accepts such Other Terms, plus simple interest at a rate equal to the thirty (30) day commercial paper rate for high-grade, unsecured notes sold through dealers by major corporations in multiples of $1,000,00 as regularly published in The Wall Street Journal.
