Re: Docket no 981781-SU
Order no. PSC-99-0180-PCO -SU
Issued Jan. 29 1999
Entitled: Order Acknowledging Intervention

Dear Sir:

Your order asking that I present all copies of my testimony, exhibits and pleadings places me in a rather perturbing position. You have ordered me to present the above mentioned articles to Mr. Stephen C. Reilly , Associate Public Counsel, Office of the Public Counsel, State of Florida.

This same Mr. Reilly shows on his Citizen's Response to this same docket, no. 981781-SU, filed December 21, 1998, that he is an "Attorney for the Citizens of the State of Florida". This brings to mind two questions which arise concerning this order no. PSC-99-0180-PCO-SU.

Firstly; I am not a citizen of the State of Florida; but rather a homeowner living for winter periods in the State of Florida, and I feel that I need assurances that my testimony, exhibits and pleadings will receive the same treatment as a citizen of this state would receive; and,

Secondly; I would like assurances that my testimony, exhibits and pleadings will not be used by this counsel in such a way as to take away from their meaningfulness in a hearing. In other words, I want assurances that they will not be used by Mr. Reilly, or any other of his associate counsel, in his, or their, own presentation before the Public Service Commission without my consent.

The above is not to be construed as criticism of Mr. Reilly, or to take away anything from the ability of Mr. Reilly, or other associate counsel, to act on the behalf of the Citizens of the State of Florida; but rather as a protection of the rights granted to me under the U.S. Constitution.

Your order also gave no date for the actual "furnishing" of these above mentioned articles so I have to presume that there is no immediate rush in getting them to Tallahassee and so, I await your response.

Yours

Ron Ludington
