Re: Docket No. 930235-TL; Request for extended local calling in Taylor county.

Dear Senator Williams:

The Commission has received Taylor County's request for extended local calling service and opened the docket referenced above. An order has been issued requiring the telephone company to conduct a calling traffic study on the routes within the county which are presently long distance. This study is scheduled to be filed by June 28, 1993. The Commission's staff will then review the study and submit a recommendation for the Commission's decision on this matter in early August 1993.

I have added your name to the mailing list in this docket so that you will receive any notices or orders issued therein. If I can be of further assistance please let me know.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Thomas:

This is to inform you that, pursuant to Rule 25-22.006(4), Florida Administrative Code, your request for confidential classification, dated June 21, 1993, in Docket No. 930235-TL, is deficient on its face. The following deficiencies have been identified:

No reason has been given by the Company to justify granting specified confidential treatment to the data identified on page two of the filing. The only justification stated by the Company is that the data are proprietary business information of AT&T. This is insufficient under the Rule, as well as under Section 364.183, Florida Statutes. The Company is required to demonstrate how the information qualifies for confidential treatment. This needs to include a statement of the harm that would occur if the data are disclosed.

If a revised filing which meets the requirements of the Rule is not received by the Director of the Division of Records and Reporting within 15 days of the date of this letter, a recommendation will be made to the Prehearing Officer to deny the request pursuant to Rule 25-22.006(4)(3), Florida Administrative Code.
