Southern Energy, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Southern Energy”), is filing this Notification of Foreign Utility Company status pursuant to Section 33(a) of the Act and Rule 57 thereunder on behalf of the three companies named above, which are organized under the trust laws of the State of Delaware (collectively, the “Project Trusts”). Southern Energy is a wholly-owned subsidiary of The Southern Company (“Southern”), a registered holding company.¹

Southern Energy intends to acquire, indirectly through one or more intermediate subsidiaries, the beneficial interests in each of the three Project Trusts. The Project Trusts have been formed to acquire the retail natural gas distribution and transportation system owned by GAMOG Gelre Flevo Holding N.V. and GAMOG Gelre Flevo Infra B.V. (collectively, “GAMOG”), which supplies the regions of Flevoland, East Gelderland and West Gelderland (a/k/a Veluwe) in the Netherlands (referred to herein as the “GAMOG Gas Network”). The GAMOG Gas Network has a residential customer base of approximately 337,584 and a large/special customer base of approximately 635. The GAMOG Gas Network has three (3) regional energy groups which are responsible for supplying natural gas and managing the gas transmission/distribution infrastructure which consists of six (6) distinct gas networks. The GAMOG Gas Network is comprised of the connection between the end users (residential and business customers) and the national gas supply grid operated by N.V. Nederlandse Gasunie, the government controlled national supplier of natural gas for The Netherlands. The transportation assets included within the GAMOG Gas Network are primarily comprised of approximately 9,619 kilometers of metallic and non-metallic piping.

2. Name of any domestic associate public-utility company and, if applicable, its holding company, and a description of the relationship between the foreign utility company and such company, and the purchase price paid by any such domestic associate public-utility company for its interest in the foreign utility company.

The following domestic public-utility companies, each of which is a direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Southern, are associate companies of the Project Trusts:

Alabama Power Company
Georgia Power company
Gulf Power Company
Mississippi Power Company
Mobile Energy Services Company, L.L.C.
Savannah Electric and Power Company
Southern Electric Generating Company

None of the foregoing domestic public utility companies has made an investment in or has any contractual relationship with any of the Project Trusts, and no such investment or contractual relationship is contemplated.
