Dear Ms. Randolph:

Your letter dated June 30, 2000 requesting cancellation of your IXC Certificate No. 5188 was referred to me for handling. There are two kinds of cancellations. The first is voluntary, which is normally granted if the company is in good standing with the Commission and does not have a past due balance of the regulatory assessment fee (RAF), including statutory penalty and interest charges. The other is involuntary. If a company is not in good standing and has an outstanding balance of the RAF, the Commission normally grants the cancellation on its own motion for a rule violation. The certificate is cancelled and any balance owed is forwarded to the Comptroller's Office for collection.

The regulatory assessment fee is assessed if a certificate is active for any one day during a calendar year. The RAF is due by January 30 of each year, unless the 30th falls on a weekend, then the fee is due by the next working day, for the previous year.

According to Commission records, your company has an outstanding balance of $1.50 for the 1998 RAF. Our records show that you made three payments for the 1998 RAF. You paid $1.39 RAF on 06/17/99, $15.00 RAF on 07/29/99, and $33.61 RAF, $12.50 penalty, and $2.50 interest on 09/08/99. You owed $4.00 interest, paid $2.50, leaving a balance of $1.50.

The effective date of a voluntary cancellation is the date that the Commission received a company's request for cancellation. In this case, the Commission did not receive your request until July 7, 2000, therefore, you will owe the 2000 RAF, even if you ceased selling prepaid phone cards. You must pay the 2000 RAF or provide a date certain that it will be paid. For example, within 30 days after the Commission Order is issued granting the voluntary cancellation.

Therefore, based on the above information, I cannot recommend a voluntary cancellation of your certificate unless the past due balance is paid. Please respond in writing within 15 days from the date of this letter and let me know how you wish to proceed. In the meantime, if you have any
