Dear Ms. Cibula:

I want to thank you for your prompt reply to my letter of September 7, 2000. Based on the information provided to you by Ms. Mattimoe, my concerns about being forced to connect to a commercial water/sewage provider were unfounded. I was responding to an article I read in the Nassau County newspaper (enclosed). I suppose the contents of the article were false and misleading.

I apologize for wasting your time in researching my complaint. I am satisfied with the assurance of Ms. Mattimoe and therefore see no need to convene a hearing on the matter. However, if Nassau County should change its position on the issue I will certainly be in contact with your office and pick up where we left off. Thank you again for your time.

Sincerely,

Dumas J. Vines, Jr.
