Hi Tommy. We received a memo from you on the above docket. You want us to change docket title on a docket that has been closed since May and the order issued acknowledging name change. The letter that is attached to your e-mail sounds like there is something else going on besides just cancelling these certs. If you have a copy of the letter can you read it again and suggest a docket title, that is if it's more than just a cancellation.

Thanks Tommy.

Paula, I sent you this email also because they are wanting to cancel certs and I believe you need to check on payment of RAFs.

Thanks Paula..

Paula, have you had a chance to check on the RAFs for this company and is it safe to open docket canceling certs?

Fwd=by:=Paula=Isler===7/27/99==1:06pm==

Both the IXC and the ALEC have not paid 1998 RAFs, plus statutory penalty and interest charges. They will also owe 1999 RAFs if they are requesting cancellations. A docket should not be opened for voluntary cancellations.

Ok, do you want me to send you a copy of the letter?

Tommy, do you want me to handle this like the other one? I don't mind.

Hi Linda. This company sent me a letter on 992038 responding to the PAA Order, and I forwarded the original over to you to be documented in the file. Since this company has two certificates and owes RAFs on both, this company will have to pay the past due RAFs on both certificates although it only wants to keep one certificate active by making a settlement offer. Even though the company only referenced Docket 992038, please put a copy in the other docket also, 992039, so that a consummating order will not be issued on either. Does this make sense? Thanks.
