Allied Universal Corporation and Chemical Formulators, Inc.'s Petition to Vacate Order No. PSC-01-1003-AS-EI Approving, as Modified and Clarified, the Settlement Agreement between Allied Universal Corporation and Chemical Formulators, Inc., and Tampa Electric Company and Request for Additional Relief.

Docket No. 040086-El Filed: June  $\underline{\mathcal{I}}^{\dagger}$ , 2004

ODYSSEY MANUFACTURING COMPANY'S RESPONSE TO THE OFFICE OF PUBLIC COUNSEL'S MOTION FOR DETERMINATION OF THE PROPER TREATMENT OF DEPOSITION TRANSCRIPT OF MR. PATRICK ALLMAN

Odyssey Manufacturing Company ("Odyssey"), by and through undersigned counsel and pursuant to Rule 28-106.204(1), Florida Administrative Code, hereby files<sup>1</sup> this Response to the Office of Public Counsel's ("OPC") Motion for Determination of the Proper Treatment of Deposition Transcript of Mr. Patrick Allman (the "Deposition") and states as follows:

1. OPC's rationale for its curious motion is predicated on its assertion that it is somehow compelled to respond to TECO's response to OPC's April 23 motion.<sup>2</sup> OPC presents a misleading excerpt from TECO's response-omitting and avoiding TECO's well-founded questioning of how &lt;sup>1</sup> Since its receipt of Order No. PSC-04-0232-PCO-El, in which the Prehearing Officer requested that the parties avoid "becoming further polarized and distracted by excessive ancillary motion practice," Odyssey has honored this request, filing no motions and keeping its responses to those motions filed by others as brief as possible. To remain silent after OPC's latest filing, in the judgment of undersigned counsel, would prejudice Odyssey.

&lt;sup>2</sup>The April 23 motion, like that at issue herein, failed to comport with Rule 28-106.204(3), FAC, as OPC neglected to consult, or state that it had consulted with, all other parties of record prior to filing either motion.

OPC could make reference to a deposition at which OPC was not present<sup>3</sup> and for which the transcription was neither complete,<sup>4</sup> nor placed in the mail to the parties,<sup>5</sup> until the date of OPC's April 23 motion.<sup>6</sup> OPC's omission is but one example of a problematic lack of candor toward this tribunal and lack of fairness to opposing parties and counsel. In an embarrassingly transparent attempt to further mislead the Commission and to avoid TECO's questioning of how OPC came to know the contents of the Deposition completed by the court reporter the same day OPC filed its April 23 Motion,<sup>7</sup> OPC states in the present tense, that it possesses the deposition and that OPC "obtained it as a public record from the Dade County Circuit Court." However, as shown in the records of court filings with the Miami-Dade County Circuit Court, not only was the deposition absent from the court file until April 27, four days after OPC's first motion referencing it, but the Deposition was filed by counsel for Allied/CFI.<sup>8</sup> This casts an interesting, and unflattering, light on Allied/CFI as well, since, in their "response" to OPC's motion they piously exclaim that while they will conduct themselves as if confidentiality had not been compromised, the Deposition is no longer privileged as it is in the public records, using the metaphor that the "toothpaste is out of the

tube" without mentioning that they were the ones who squeezed it. This is hauntingly reminiscent of Allied/CFI's previous and repeated compromising of Odyssey's confidential, proprietary information in this docket, as chronicled in Odyssey's Motion to Dismiss (Commission Document No. 02390-04), at fn.3. In any event, in this regard, the complaints of Odyssey's adversaries ring as hollow as those of Hamlet's Player-Queen-only, here, it is the lawyers, not the lady, who doth protest too much.

2. In fact, there were only two parties in attendance during the taking of Mr. Allman's deposition: Odyssey and Allied/CFI.<sup>9</sup> Moreover, as Odyssey never provided the deposition to, nor discussed its contents with, OPC, it is abundantly clear that OPC either

(1) in a single day:

(a) miraculously received the Deposition from Allied/CFI the same day it was transcribed;

(b) was able to read and digest its more than 100 pages;

(c) made a reasoned decision to file its April 23 Motion;

- (d) drafted said motion; and
- (e) filed it;

or

(2) relied upon an interpretation of the Deposition given it by Allied/CFI, an adverse party to the deponent.

And while it is clear that only the latter is possible, in either event, one thing is certain: OPC is acting as nothing more than a straw man for Allied/CFI in the docket.

3. In its latest motion, OPC reiterates its mantra that "whether the Contract Service Agreement between TECO and Odyssey Manufacturing Company comports with the requirements of Order No. PSC-98-1081-FOF-EI" is a "disputed issue of material fact." This assertion is in fact irrelevant to the allegations of the "Petition" filed by Allied/CFI and against which Odyssey's pending Motion to Dismiss is directed.

4. Odyssey filed its Motion to Dismiss in February, 2004, prior to OPC's intervention in the proceeding. Odyssey's Motion has yet to be heard. Odyssey should not be forced to endure delay attributable to OPC's [and Allied/CFI's] ongoing efforts to distract the Commission with decidedly collateral matters. OPC's Motion should only be addressed (if necessary) after Odyssey's long-standing Motion is heard and ruled upon.

WHEREFORE, Odyssey Manufacturing Corporation respectfully requests that the Commission (1) defer ruling on OPC's Motion for Determination of the Proper Treatment of Deposition Transcript of Mr. Patrick Allman until after the Commission rules on Odyssey's Motion to Dismiss (if any such ruling is necessary at that time); (2) rule that OPC's Motion is improper and deny same; and (3) grant such other relief as it deems appropriate.

Respectfully submitted this  $\underline{7^{\prime\prime\prime}}$  day of June, 2004.
