Kay Flynn

From:Kay FlynnSent:Thursday, November 06, 2003 11:08 AMTo:Ray KennedySubject:RE: Question

I dug through our recycle container and fortunately found the envelope! We normally do not keep an envelope with a filing, because what determines the official filing date is the date a filing is received by CCA--not the postmark--unless there are circumstances that could make it otherwise. However, because his letter is dated 10/6 and was received 11/5, it would be appropriate to keep the envelope so we could refer back to the postmark for such questions as yours. I'll have the envelope scanned in as the second page of this filing.

(Marquerite, Matilda please note--DN 11005-03, I'm adding a page to it.)

To answer your questions, the postmark is 11/3, and the letter came straight to us from the PO via the mailroom on 11/5.

----Original Message----From: Ray Kennedy Sent: Thursday, November 06, 2003 10:03 AM To: Kay Flynn Subject: Question

In Docket 030410-TI, we learned that the company filed a protest letter. The letter is dated early October and it was received in CCA on 11/05/03. Do we still have the envelope the letter came in? If so, what is the postmark date? I just want to make sure it was not at the Commission early October. Also, did it come straight to CCA via post office or did someone in CMP or Legal bring it to CCA? I just want to make sure we did not do anything that may have caused a late filing of the company's letter. The DN is 11005-03.

Thanks, Ray
