No we have e-mailed. He was under the opinion that they did not have to register a d/b/a and when I told him he had to or I could not use it on the certificate he advised he was not. The only reason for the d/b/a was to list the hotel. That is when I advised him we could send all correspondence to the hotels mailing address. I'll get a responds from him to put in the file.

What we have in the record is an application that includes a d/b/a. We can't simply change that name (delete the d/b/a) based on a phone conversation. We need a written request from the applicant that can be placed in the record.

Not really, because they do not have the d/b/a registered nor are they going to register it.

Since we're taking away from the application name (as opposed to correcting per Corporations records) we do need to have something in writing from him.

Kay, in talking with Paul Corbley they want to remove the d/b/a from this filing and go with Marriott Hotel Services, Inc. Further, he wants the mailing address for all correspondence to go to: Mr. Paul Corbley, Senior Assistant Controller
