Subject: RE: FW: TK111 - Eymol Corp. d/b/a Voinline Telecommunications Group

Dear Mr. Molina:

I cannot find record where the company notified this Commission that it had requested cancellation. I looked back at the company's 2007 Regulatory Assessment Fee (RAF) return form, which was postmarked January 15, 2008, and there is no note on the form nor was there any correspondence attached to the form indicating the company was no longer operating. I then checked the Florida Department of State, Division of Corporations' records and saw where you voluntarily dissolved the corporation with that agency about three weeks ago (February 26, 2009), however, we (the Florida Public Service Commission) were not notified until I received your e-mail this morning.

I will now open a docket to cancel this IXC registration. Just as information, a recommendation will be filed for the Commission to deny Eymol Corp. d/b/a Voinline Telecommunications Group a voluntary cancellation and instead, recommend that the certificate be cancelled on the FPSC's own motion. Any unpaid fees will be turned over to collections. If the company ever decides to get back in the telecommunications business, it would have to pay all unpaid fees, including accrued statutory late payment charges, at that time. In addition to the 2008 RAF plus late payment charges, the company also owes the 2009 RAF. The late payment charges continue to accrue until the RAF is paid.

Please let me know if you have any questions. Thanks.

Cancel the IXC certificate for Eymol Corp. This company no longer exists. Please note that Eymol Corp. stopped the telecommunications business operations in January 2008. And the officials made the proper shutdown of the company.

Thanks,
Eybar Molina

Dear Mr. Molina:

I've been following up on the 2008 Regulatory Assessment Fees (RAFs) and payment still has not been received. However, we did receive the company's 2008 RAF return form with the note "Business Closed" written on it. Are you requesting cancellation of the company's IXC certificate? If yes, please confirm via this e-mail and I will open a docket. In addition, please state the company's intention concerning payment of the 2008 and 2009 RAFs.

Just as information, the RAF is owed if a certificate is active for any day during a calendar year. This means that the company owes the 2008 and 2009 RAFs since we were not notified in 2008 to cancel the certificate. If the company wants a voluntary cancellation, the 2008 and 2009 RAFs must be paid at the time it requests cancellation. If the company is unable to pay the RAFs, then we would still cancel the certificate, it would be cancelled on the FPSC's own motion and any unpaid fees would be turned over to collections. Just in case the company wishes to leave in good standing, I am attaching the 2008 and 2009 RAF returns.

Please let me know how the company wishes to proceed. Thanks.

Good morning:

This morning (February 20, 2009), the Commission mailed out delinquent notices to those companies that either have not paid the 2008 Regulatory Assessment Fee (RAF) or have not paid the 2008 RAF in full. Our records show that the company has not paid the 2008 RAF. I wanted to give you a heads up because those certificate holders not complying with the delinquent notices will be automatically fined $500 for a first offense, $1,000 for a second offense, and $2,000 for a third offense. A copy of the Regulatory Assessment Fee rule is attached.

If the company owes the minimum and if payment is postmarked between January 31 and March 1, the total due is $742, which is comprised of the $700 minimum RAF, $35 penalty, and $7 interest. If payment is postmarked between March 2 and March 31, the total due is $784, which is comprised of the $700 minimum RAF, $70 penalty, and $14 interest. A copy of the 2008 RAF return form is also attached. Please complete it and return it with full payment, including the late payment charges. Just as information, late payment charges (penalty and interest) continue to accrue until the RAF is paid.

If your records show that payment was made, let me know right away by providing me with the check number and the date payment was mailed so that I can research this further. Please let me know if you have any questions. Thanks.
