We are in receipt of your attached e-filing. Please note that, per the Commission's e-filing requirements, documents are to include an official signature. Your document will need to be revised and resubmitted to be considered an official filing. The signature on the attached filing is shown as "/s/." However, per Commission e-filing requirements the official signature needs to be reflected as "s/ your name," as indicated below. Any name and/or title may be typed under that.

Manner of Electronic Transmission:

* Documents shall be signed by typing "s/" followed by the signatory:

s/ First M. Last

* The acknowledgment indicates the document has been received, but does not confirm the document meets the requirements for electronic filing.

A link to the Commission's e-filing requirements is included for your convenience:
<http://www.psc.state.fl.us/dockets/e-filings/>

Please also note that your e-mail transmittal advises a motion to intervene is attached. There is no motion to intervene attached, and the cover letter requests to be included in the docket as an interested person. As an interested person you will receive all notices for hearing, prehearing, proposed agency action orders, final orders, and notices of agenda conferences.

If you are interested in receiving more documents than those, for example, procedural orders, you will need to contact staff counsel for instructions on becoming a party of record.

Requests to be included in a docket as an interested person should be forwarded to clerk@psc.state.fl.us rather than filings@psc.state.fl.us. If you are filing a motion to intervene, that would be forwarded to filings@psc.state.fl.us.

I have updated the parties status for Mr. Self at Messer Law Firm. It appears that when we issued the order granting intervention to FGT, we only changed the party status for FGT/Langston, Soldano, and not for Messer Law Firm. We apologize for any inconvenience we may have caused.

Maybe the problem of me not getting stuff is related to the fact that on the Commission's website I am only listed as an interested party. The website has my clients Michael T. Langston/Louis P. Soldano listed as parties with FGT but not me. Can you get that fixed? Thanks.
