RE:

TE804 - JLW Technical
Communications, Inc.

Dear Mr. Williams:

On February 20, 2009, the Commission mailed, via certified mail, delinquent notices to all companies that either did not pay the 2008 Regulatory Assessment Fee (RAF) or did not pay it in full. Our records show your company has not paid the 2008 RAF. I wanted to give you a heads up because those certificate holders not complying with the delinquent notices will subsequently be fined $500 for a first offense, $1,000 for a second offense, and $2000 for a third offense.

If the company owes the minimum and if payment is postmarked between now and March 1st, the total due is $106, which is comprised of the $100 minimum, $5 penalty, and $1 interest. If payment is postmarked between March 2nd and March 31st, the total due is $112, which is comprised of the $100 minimum, $10 penalty, and $2 interest. A copy of the 2008 RAF return form is attached. Please complete it and return it with full payment, including the late charges. Just as information, late payment charges (penalty and interest) continue to accrue until the RAF is paid.

If the company is interested in cancelling its certificate, we need a letter from you requesting cancellation as soon as possible. There are two types of cancellation, one is voluntary, which is granted if a company leaves in good standing and does not owe any fees. The other is involuntary, which is when a certificate is cancelled on the Commission's own motion for violation of a rule, order, or statute. The Regulatory Assessment Fee is owed if a certificate is active during any portion of a calendar year. This means that the 2008 and 2009 RAFs are applicable. Either way, the company needs to write us a letter requesting cancellation. The letter should also include its intent on payment of the 2008 and 2009 fees even if it is unable to pay the fees, it should state that in the letter.

If that is the route you choose, as soon as we receive a letter requesting cancellation of the certificate, a docket will be opened to handle the cancellation request.

Please let me know if you have any questions (my contact information is on the first page).
