SUMMARY OF RULE

The rule revisions place the Commission in the role of being its own Official Reporter, as of January 1, 2010. This is implemented through the Commission's Web site which provides an electronic database of the Commission's orders. Prior orders are located in the FPSC Reporter, published by FALR. Rule 25-22.103, Orders Indexed, is repealed because there is no need for orders to be "indexed" when an electronic database is used instead; Rule 25-22.1035, Designation of Official Reporter, is amended to make the Commission's Web site the Official Reporter from January 2010 forward; Rule 25-22.107, Plan for Making Orders Available to the Public, is amended to state that copies of orders are maintained electronically at the Commission's Web site; Rule 25-22.105, System for Indexing Orders, is amended to refer to the Commission's electronic database on the Commission's Web site. The amendments also refer to the advanced search feature of orders.

SUMMARY OF HEARINGS ON THE RULE

No hearing was requested and none was held.

FACTS AND CIRCUMSTANCES JUSTIFYING THE RULE

The Florida Public Service Commission currently has an electronic database of its orders. Thus, there is no longer a need for the orders to be "indexed" and published when an electronic database is used. There should be benefits in saving staff time to reproduce and mail the orders to the publisher and the associated reproduction and mailing costs. Also, consumers, utilities and business entitles will know the orders are online and they may obtain access without subscribing to a publication.
