On May 6, 2010, a joint motion was filed by East Marion Sanitary Systems, Inc., Dennis U. Smith, Joseph M. Singel, Earl Turner, David Greco, Carol Greco, Millicent Mallon, Terry Will, and Kevin Politte (movants) requesting that we hold this proceeding in abeyance pending efforts by the parties to resolve their differences by way of settlement, and that we abate all of the scheduled actions set forth in Commission Order Nos. PSC-10-0116-PCO-WU and PSC-10-0276-PCO-WU, First and Second Orders Revising Order Establishing Procedure (procedural orders).

In the Motion, the movants state that they are currently engaged in discussions regarding the potential for settling their differences, and that holding this proceeding in abeyance will permit them to focus their efforts on meaningful settlement negotiations. Additionally, the movants will provide a status report within 45 days on the progress of their settlement discussions.

This notice should not be construed to mean all requests for an administrative hearing or judicial review will be granted or result in the relief sought.

Mediation may be available on a case-by-case basis. If mediation is conducted, it does not affect a substantially interested person's right to a hearing.

Any party adversely affected by this order, which is preliminary, procedural or intermediate in nature, may request: (1) reconsideration within 10 days pursuant to Rule 25-22.0376, Florida Administrative Code; or (2) judicial review by the Florida Supreme Court, in the case of an electric, gas or telephone utility, or the First District Court of Appeal, in the case of a water or wastewater utility. A motion for reconsideration shall be filed with the Office of Commission Clerk, in the form prescribed by Rule 25-22.0376, Florida Administrative Code. Judicial review of a preliminary, procedural or intermediate ruling or order is available if review of the final action will not provide an adequate remedy. Such review may be requested from the appropriate court, as described above, pursuant to Rule 9.100, Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure.
