BEFORE THE FLORIDA PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

In re: Petition for Rate Increase by
Florida Power and Light Company

Docket No. 120015-EI
Served: 15 AUG 2012

THOMAS SAPORITO'S OPPOSITION TO JOINT MOTION
TO SUSPEND PROCEDURAL SCHEDULE

NOW COMES, pro se Intervenor Thomas Saporito and files Thomas Saporito's Opposition to Joint Motion to Suspend Procedural Schedule in the above-captioned matter and states as follows:

Florida Power and Light Company (FPL) along with the Florida Industrial Power Users Group (FIPUG), the South Florida Hospital and Healthcare Association (SFHHA) and the Federal Executive Agencies (FEA) (collectively "Signatories") have filed a Joint Motion to Suspend Procedural Schedule (Joint Motion) this date in the instant action for reasons alleged therein.

Intervenor Saporito was contacted by telephone by FPL attorney Jordon White (White) inquiring about Saporito's position with respect to the proposed settlement agreement and joint motion to suspend procedural schedule. Saporito explained to White that such an arrangement would necessarily disenfranchise [his, Saporito's] ability to continue in the above-captioned matter because Saporito prepaid his lodging and travel to Tallahassee, Florida for the entirety of August, 2012 and was now temporarily residing in Tallahassee, FL to attend the schedule FPL rate case beginning on August 20, 2012. In addition, Saporito explained to White that any continuance of the instant action would cause further economic harm to himself - as he would lose significant funds already expensed for travel, food, and lodging. In addition, Saporito explained to White that it would be exceptionally financially difficult for him to make a subsequent trip to Tallahassee, FL at some future date in September. Finally, Saporito disagreed with certain language proposed by White for him to take a position on the Joint Motion - and the attorney clearly understood Saporito's position to be in opposition of the Joint Motion.

CONCLUSION

The Joint Motion would necessarily disenfranchise Saporito from further participation in the instant action due to the significant loss in funds already expended in this matter for food, travel and lodging - and cause further significant financial hardship on Saporito which would likely cause [him] to withdrawal from the proceeding if the Commission granted the Joint Motion. In addition, Saporito has stated on-the-record at the prehearing conference that he has already committed to business travel to Washington, D.C. during the week of September 10th, 2012. Thus, any continuance of the instant action to a time period in September 2012 would necessarily disenfranchise Saporito from further participation in this matter.

FOR ALL THE ABOVE STATED REASONS, Intervenor Saporito strenuously objects to the Joint Motion and urges the Commission to deny the Joint Motion as a matter of law.

Respectfully submitted this 15th day August of 2012.
