Rick,

Certainly. A thirty-day extension would put the due date at February 19, 2018. However, although February 19, 2018, is not a state holiday, it is a federal holiday, and the U.S. Post Office will not be making deliveries that day. Therefore, response deadline is now February 20, 2018.

Thank you for your responsiveness.

Melinda,
I am working with the surveyor to have the description revised, and to complete the response to the other item. The current response deadline is January 19, 2018.

We needed to get a new scope of work and contract with them for the revisions. Can we have a 30 day extension, so they can complete the revisions, and I can send in a complete response.

Thanks,
Rick
