

Review of Electric Utility Hurricane Preparedness and Restoration Actions

Comments : My wife and I are luck to have PV panels on our Merritt Island home, and we believe that solar panels on the homes of all Floridians will reduce the load on our electric grid in the wake of future hurricanes. My brother-in-law in Port Orange has a PV system with battery back-up, and enjoyed reliable power in the wake of Hurricane Irma. This is the power supply of the future. You must encourage grid-tied, distributed PV.
