Good afternoon, Nickalus:

The letter was supposed to be sent to a division or department within the Florida Public Service Commission responsible for the administration of the E911 System Remittance Report and with authority to accept such a letter.

I apologize if the envelope was sent to the incorrect department.

Would you kindly point me in the right direction as to the appropriate department to receive and accept such a letter?

Thank you in advance.

Good Afternoon Ms. Biehl

The Florida Public Service Commission, Office of Commission Clerk received mail from you dated 1/23/19. The mailing address was for us (FPSC), however the letter itself is addressed to the Florida Department of Management Services.

Could you confirm or clarify if the letter was meant to be sent to the FPSC or Florida Department of Management Services? Or if it was for FL DMS and this was a courtesy copy for our agency? I have attached the letter and the shipping label for reference.

Thank you for the clarification.

Sincerely,

Nickalus Holmes
