Re: Docket No. 20200056-EG-EI; Petition for Approval of Florida Power & Light Company's Demand-Side Management Plan

Dear Commissioners:

On behalf of Walmart Inc. ("Walmart"), an Interested Party in the above-referenced case, please accept and consider these comments regarding Florida Power and Light's ("FPL") Petition for Approval of its Demand-Side Management ("DSM") Plan in Docket Number 20200056-EG.

Walmart received comments filed in this case on June 19, 2020, on behalf of Florida Industrial Power Users Group ("FIPUG") and supports FIPUG's comments. In particular, Walmart agrees that interruptible, curtailable, and standby generation tariffs are a valuable resource to the utilities, but among the concurrent DSM Plan proceedings pending before the Florida Public Service Commission ("Commission"), only FPL seeks to modify the credit value associated with demand-side resources. Therefore, as did FIPUG, Walmart urges the Commission to refrain from altering FPL's existing Commercial and Industrial Load Credits ("CILC") and Commercial and Industrial Demand Reduction Credits ("CDR") in this Docket 20200056-EG, and instead, Walmart requests, that DSM credit issues be addressed in in FPL's next rate case or in a separate Docket.

Walmart appreciates your consideration on this issue and would be eager to address the issue with the Commission at the appropriate time.

Sincerely,

/s/ Stephanie U. Eaton
