Any thoughts on this? I see that the clerk filed an acknowledgement of receipt of the Notice of Abandonment in the new case... is this just a formality when the PSC receives any document?

Upon review of the prior docket, 20210038 his application for SARC was denied for the land ownership issue.

He, or whoever else is appointed as receiver, is going to need to raise rates to be able to fund the litigation necessary to acquire the land. Is PSC not going to allow that to happen?

Hi Jean,

Thank you for reaching out. You are correct, the PSC recently did open a docket regarding the aforementioned abandonment notice that we received. Kerri Johnson, is the lead engineer for both the new and old dockets regarding this abandonment. Also, Jennifer Crawford, who has already corresponded with you a bit on this matter, is the attorney assigned as well.

We are currently reviewing the details of the abandonment notice that we received and will be in touch with you soon.

Thank you,

Marissa Ramos

Hi Adam.

Charlotte County received the attached Notice of Abandonment from the court appointed receiver, however the utility was already been abandoned in PSC docket 20210038.

PSC opened another docket 20220092-WS

What is the proper procedure?
