ORDER ON DISCOVERY

On October 24, 1990, attorneys for Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company (Southern Bell), the Office of Public Counsel (OPC) and the Commission Staff met to discuss OPC's Motions to Compel filed: February 22, 1989 concerning its January 10, 1989 Production of Documents request; March 22, 1989 concerning its February 9, 1989 Production of Documents request; June 23, 1989 concerning its February 9, 1989 Interrogatories numbers 1(b), 1(c), 4(a), 7(a)-(d); July 21, 1989 concerning its May 30, 1989 Production of Documents request.

As a result of this meeting, OPC determined that the information sought in these four discovery requests was either no longer needed in this proceeding or already in the possession of the OPC.

It is, therefore

ORDERED by Michael McK. Wilson, as Chairman and Prehearing Officer, that the Motions to Compel filed by the Office of Public Counsel on February 22, 1989, March 22, 1989, June 23, 1989 and July 21, 1989 are disposed of as set forth in the body of this Order.

By ORDER of Michael McK. Wilson, Chairman and Prehearing Officer, this 13th day of DECEMBER, 1990.

MICHAEL MCK. WILSON, Chairman and Prehearing Officer
