TAMPA ELECTRIC COMPANY'S POST-HEARING STATEMENT OF ISSUES AND POSITIONS

Tampa Electric Company ("Tampa Electric" or "the company"), pursuant to the Prehearing Order issued in this docket on February 8, 1999, submits the following as its Post-Hearing Statement of Issues and Positions:

Basic Position

Transmission revenues should be allocated according to transmission usage. A transmission related separation factor based on coincident peak demand properly allocates transmission revenues between the retail and wholesale jurisdictions.

Issues and Positions

ISSUE 1: Does the FERC require that revenue from non-firm transmission services subject to FERC jurisdiction be reflected as a revenue credit in the derivation of firm transmission service rates subject to FERC jurisdiction?

TECO: Yes.

ISSUE 2: How should the transmission revenues associated with economy transactions over the Energy Broker Network be allocated between the retail and wholesale jurisdictions?

TECO: A jurisdictional factor derived using a 12 CP methodology based on transmission usage should be used to separate transmission revenues associated with economy transactions over the Energy Broker Network between the retail and wholesale jurisdictions.

ISSUE 3: How should Florida Power Corporation allocate transmission revenues associated with economy transactions over the Energy Broker Network between the retail and whole jurisdictions?

TECO: No position.

ISSUE 4: How should Florida Power & Light allocate transmission revenues associated with economy transactions over the Energy Broker Network between the retail and wholesale jurisdictions?

TECO: No position.

ISSUE 5: How should Gulf Power Company allocate transmission revenues associated with economy transactions over the Energy Broker Network between the retail and wholesale jurisdictions?

TECO: No position.

ISSUE 6: How should Tampa Electric Company allocate transmission revenues associated with economy transactions over the Energy Broker Network between the retail and wholesale jurisdictions?

TECO: Tampa Electric should use a jurisdictional factor derived using a 12 CP methodology based on transmission usage to separate transmission revenues associated with economy transactions over the Energy Broker Network between the retail and wholesale jurisdictions.

DATED this 4th day of March, 1999.

Respectfully submitted,
