Dear Ms. Isler:

Pathfinder Management, LLC provides accounting services for QAI, Inc., tax id 41-1709144. We began performing all accounting functions, including regulatory filings, for QAI, Inc. on January 1, 1999.

Pathfinder filed for QAI, Inc. the Interexchange Company Regulatory Assessment Fee Return on February 24, 1999. We were late and have taken steps so going forward, we will be on time. We paid $28.00 because we failed to see the $50.00 minimum. We are now aware of this and will make sure to pay the correct amount. The only letter we received regarding any delinquent amounts was dated March 12, 1999. This letter is attached and states that Florida had not received our 1998 fee. I called and spoke to Frank Harris on March 24, 1999 and he confirmed receipt. He did not mention anything wrong with our filing or any other past due amounts.

On October 20, 1999, we received the case assignment of docket number 991537-TI. I was very surprised because I had no idea there were past due amounts and we had paid the wrong amount on the 1998 return. I am very sorry for this mistake and

Dear Ms. Bayo:

Pathfinder Management, LLC provides accounting services for QAI, Inc., tax id 41-1709144. We began performing all accounting functions, including regulatory filings, for QAI, Inc. on January 1, 1999.

Pathfinder filed for QAI, Inc. the Interexchange Company Regulatory Assessment Fee Return on February 24, 1999. We were late and paid the wrong amount. We have made numerous notes in our Florida file as well as on our tracking sheets to ensure this does not happen again. We are very sorry for the inconvenience this has caused you.

QAI, Inc. had not filed a 1996 or 1997 return which we were not aware of until we received docket number 991537-TI. I have worked with Paula Isler to clear this up and she has sent us a letter stating we have now paid all past due amounts.

QAI, Inc. realizes these mistakes cause extra work and would like to make a monetary settlement of $100.00. Please help me clear up this problem so that QAI, Inc. can again have good standing in your state. Thank you for your time.
