Dear Director Bayo:

Enclosed please find two previous letters that I sent to you regarding my Certificate to provide pay telephone service while d/b/a D.A. Lawrence Communications Company. In both letters I attempted to cancel the certificate. I do not plan to provide pay phone service and never did provide such service when I had the certificate. I have also spoken with personnel in your office via telephone with respect to this issue and I believe that I have complied with their directions regarding where to send the letters, etc.

Please advise me what I need to do to cancel the certificate # 5233 and have the Commission drop the administrative hearing issues which you recently made me aware of. Please respond to this letter so I know that you received it. You may also email me at: DP101576@aol.com, or fax a reply to (727) 733-1949.

Thank you for your attention to this ongoing matter.

Cancellation Telephone Certificate # 5233

Dear Director Bayo,

I wrote to your commission a couple of years ago and cancelled my permit.
I never conducted any phone business in Florida.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.
