I am a local business owner in Tampa, and I am both concerned and alarmed at you people's constant allowing of Tampa Electric's rate increases.

Have ANY of you done any research to see how many lawsuits have been filed against Tampa Electric, and how many they have LOST?

Try ALL of them!

The ONLY thing they are doing when they ask for a rate increase is COVERING the costs of LOSING all of their lawsuits, you fucking STUPID morons!

STOP allowing rate increases you fkng JERK-OFFS!

One more 'allowance' and I will personally make sure that your entire counsel gets refreshed with new people!

Get that message you stupid jerk-offs!
