Docket No. 931111-SU

November 22, 1994

Issue 2: Recommendation that initial wastewater rates, charges, and return on equity should not be approved at this time. The Utility should file status reports every six months until the final development plans are approved. The reports should include the status of the appeal, DEP permitting process, Utility construction, and any other information the Utility believes is pertinent. Upon final approval of the development, the Utility should file revised data reflecting the actual development plans. Also, the Utility should file a revised service availability policy with a provision for the collection of guaranteed revenues, and should include guaranteed revenue agreements.

APPROVED

Issue 3: Recommendation that this docket remain open for the setting of initial rates, charges, and return on equity.
