ORDER SUSPENDING TAMPA ELECTRIC COMPANY'S COMMERCIAL/INDUSTRIAL SERVICE RIDER TARIFF

BY THE COMMISSION:

On August 24, 1995, Tampa Electric Company (TECO) filed its proposed Commercial/Industrial Service Rider (CISR) tariff. This optional rider is available to large customers who are currently served or eligible for service under TECO's GSD, GSDT, GSLD, and GSLDT rates. Existing customers must have greater than 500 kw of demand, and new customers must add at least 1,000 kw of new load. The rider would allow TECO to offer confidential discounted rates to customers who assert they have credible alternatives to taking service from TECO.

This tariff represents a substantial departure from traditional cost-based ratemaking in the state of Florida. As such, we find that the tariff should be suspended to allow time for our staff to conduct discovery and to study the implications of the proposed tariff.

In consideration of the foregoing, it is

ORDERED by the Florida Public Service Commission that Tampa Electric Company's Commercial/Industrial Service Rider tariff be suspended. It is further

NOTICE OF FURTHER PROCEEDINGS OR JUDICIAL REVIEW

The Florida Public Service Commission is required by Section 120.59(4), Florida Statutes, to notify parties of any administrative hearing or judicial review of Commission orders that is available under Sections 120.57 or 120.68, Florida Statutes, as well as the procedures and time limits that apply. This notice should not be construed to mean all requests for an administrative hearing or judicial review will be granted or result in the relief sought.

Any party adversely affected by this order, which is preliminary, procedural or intermediate in nature, may request: (1) reconsideration within 10 days pursuant to Rule 25-22.038(2), Florida Administrative Code, if issued by a Prehearing Officer; (2) reconsideration within 15 days pursuant to Rule 25-22.060, Florida Administrative Code, if issued by the Commission; or (3) judicial review by the Florida Supreme Court, in the case of an electric, gas or telephone utility, or the First District Court of Appeal, in the case of a water or wastewater utility. A motion for reconsideration shall be filed with the Director, Division of Records and Reporting, in the form prescribed by Rule 25-22.060, Florida Administrative Code. Judicial review of a preliminary, procedural or intermediate ruling or order is available if review of the final action will not provide an adequate remedy. Such review may be requested from the appropriate court, as described above, pursuant to Rule 9.100, Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure.
