Re: OnePoint Communications-Georgia, LLC d/b/a OnePoint
Communications

Dear Ms. Bayo:

OnePoint Communications-Georgia, LLC d/b/a OnePoint Communications ("OnePoint-Georgia") is currently the holder of Alternative Local Exchange Company ("ALEC") Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity No. 5250 and Interexchange Company ("IXC") Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity No. 5251. OnePoint-Georgia's ALEC Certificate was granted by the Florida Public Service Commission (the "Commission") in Order No. PSC-97-1299-FOF-TX issued in Docket No. 971024-TX on October 20, 1997. OnePoint-Georgia's IXC Certificate was granted by the Commission in Order No. PSC-97-1260-FOF-TI issued in Docket No. 971025-TI on October 14, 1997.

The purpose of this letter is to advise the Commission of an anticipated change in the corporate structure of OnePoint Communications, LLC, which is the parent company of OnePoint-Georgia. In the near future, OnePoint Communications, LLC will convert from a Delaware limited liability company into a Delaware corporation through a merger with and into OnePoint Communications Corporation, which was formed in Delaware on March 26, 1998. The shareholders of OnePoint Communications Corporation will be the same as the members of OnePoint Communications, LLC. The conversion will not result in any change in any of the operating subsidiaries of OnePoint Communications, LLC, including OnePoint-Georgia. Thus, the conversion will not affect the services offered by OnePoint-Georgia in Florida or the name under which OnePoint-Georgia does business in Florida. Accordingly, the conversion will be transparent to customers of OnePoint-Georgia.

This information is being provided to the Commission in order to obtain whatever regulatory approvals of the conversion are required. Due to the time-sensitive nature of the conversion, we respectfully request that the Commission expedite its approval of the conversion.

Thank you for your assistance. Please let us know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

HOLLAND & KNIGHT LLP
