Connie, this is the docket you opened on TECO's motion for extension of time. Is their filing considered to be a request for rule waiver? Kay

Yes. Bob Elias actually characterized it as a request for a rule variance, but it's essentially a rule waiver since we have to jump through the same hoops under the same statutes.

Okay. I'm going to re-style the title a bit to reflect that, and change the category we have the filing in. Okay with you to change the title?

I just picked up the words from the request - if you need to change it, it's fine with me. I filed the CASR today, so if you could just transfer the info to whatever you call it, that would be great.

Sounds good. I'll update it in CMS, then any approved CASR that's printed from CMS would have the correct title. Thanks.
