Each provider has been notified of its delinquent fees and has been given adequate opportunity to pay. We find it appropriate to fine each provider listed above $250 for failure to comply with Section 364.336, Florida Statutes and Rule 25-4.0161, Florida Administrative Code. Each provider must remit all past due regulatory assessment fees and a $250 fine to the Florida Public Service Commission within 30 days of this Order becoming final. When the appropriate fees and fine are received, the docket shall be closed without further Commission action. Any provider that does not comply with this Order within 30 days of it becoming final shall have its certificate cancelled and the docket will be closed without further Commission action.

A protest filed in a docket shall not prevent this Order from becoming final as to any docket in which no protest is filed.

Based on the foregoing, it is ORDERED by the Florida Public Service Commission that each pay telephone provider listed in the body of this Order pay all past due regulatory assessment fees and pay a $250 fine to the Florida Public Service Commission for failure to comply with Section 364.336, Florida Statutes and Rule 25-4.0161, Florida Administrative Code. It is further ORDERED that when the past due regulatory assessment fees and the fine are paid, the docket shall be closed. It is further

ORDERED that each pay telephone provider must pay the past due regulatory assessment fees and the fine within 30 days of this Order becoming final or its certificate shall be cancelled and the docket closed. It is further ORDERED that, unless a person whose interests are substantially affected by the action proposed herein files a petition in the form and by the date specified in the Notice of Further Proceedings or Judicial Review, this Order shall become final. A protest filed in a docket shall not prevent this Order from becoming final as to any docket in which no protest is filed.

Australia Enterprises' certificate to be a pay telephone provider was cancelled in 1996. Australia has intentions to reapply for a certificate. To accomplish this, they were asked to pay outstanding fines, penalties, interest and RAF. The amount to satisfy the outstanding amount owed is $465.00. Should you have any further questions, please let me know.
