As per our conversation of last week, this letter is to protest the order of the commission whereby my company is assessed a $500 fine for failing to file the proper reports and pay the fees due. I don't know how we missed these reports, but apparently they were lost before they got to me in Miami. As you can see from the size of my income from the one phone (always less than $100 annually), this phone is a convenience only for our guests. It is mandated by the AAA club who rates my property every year. I would like to propose a settlement of $100 in place of the $500 fine. If this is acceptable, I will promise to be more timely and diligent in filing my reports in the future.

Thanks for your consideration.
