Dear Ms Biegalski;

CMU

Per my telephone conversation with you and Atty Cop, I am writing to request that the penalty of $500.00 be dismissed because of the following reasons;

- I did not personally receive the letter
- I have paid my assessments since '93 and wasn't notified I was in arrears
- I am totally disabled and unable to pay the fine. I am disabled due to auto accidents and job related injuries

• I receive social security disability. I need my certificates as I intend to ^{install} pay phones. I am physically unable to return to my previous occupation.

I am willing to pay the assessment in the amount of $ 178.00. I have already paid $ 50.00. I will pay $ 77.00 on January 6, 1998 and the remaining $ 51.00 on February 6, 1998.

Please accept my apology for this situation.

Sincerely
Bishop James Johnson
