Dear Ms Bayo:

St. Joe Natural Gas Company would have had only two areas of concern in preparing for the year 2000. One of our concerns was the Telus, electronic metering equipment, which will be Y2K compliant in a timely manner. This is no major concern to SJNG, because the capability of determining the actual gas usage can still be done manually without any interruption. The other concern was the UMS billing software. This has been upgraded and is Y2K compliant. All other areas of our operations are performed manually and will not be affected by the year 2000.

If you need additional information, let me know.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Debbie Stitt
Y2K Manager
