 RE: Docket No. 991210-TC; Beacon Service Station Inc.

This is a follow up to our telephone conversation of today concerning the past due regulatory assessment fees (RAFs), including statutory penalty and interest charges. If you want to keep the pay telephone certificate active, the company must pay the past due amount in full. According to Commission records, on January 18, 1999, you paid $9.58 for the 1998 RAFs. A minimum of $50.00 is due each year. This leaves a balance of $40.42 for the 1998 fee, plus $10.11 for the penalty and $4.04 for the interest, for a total past due of $54.57.

In addition to paying the past due amount, if you want to keep the certificate active, the company must make a settlement offer. In other, similar cases, the Commission has accepted a $100 settlement in lieu of the $500 fine normally imposed for this rule violation. The settlement letter needs to include the docket number, state that it has taken steps to prevent this rule violation from happening in the future, make a specific monetary settlement, and state that the past due amount has since been paid (after you have done so, of course). Any settlement offer should be addressed to Ms. Blanca Bayó, Director, Division of Records and Reporting,

To Ms. Blanca Mayo:

Ms. Mayo this letter is in response to the rule violation of not paying the annual $ 50 RAFs for the past year. Please be assured that this fee will not be overlooked in the future. The steps that Beacon Service Station Inc. has taken is that we have entered the $ 50 RAFs as if a permit needs to be issued in order to operate pay phones. In lieu of violating payment on time, Beacon Service Station Inc. proposes to pay $ 100.00 fine to retain the telephone certificate active. We were not aware of the fee that was imposed to retain the certificate active; however, we know that does not excuse us of not paying the RAF fee. Thank you, for your consideration on this matter.

Sincerely yours,

JERRY ORDONEZ, President
