3. The Commission granted Time Warner a certificate of authority in Docket No. 95-0906

Time Warner is a facilities-based carrier presently providing exchange access and local exchange telecommunications services in Florida. Accordingly, Time Warner is subject to the rules, regulations, and orders of the Commission, and such rules, regulations, and orders impact Time Warner in the provision of telecommunications services in Florida, and Time Warner's ability to compete.

4. Time Warner's interests may or will be substantially and directly affected by the Commission's decision in this docket inasmuch as Time Warner provides telecommunications services in the Tampa area. The impact of Verizon's proposed changes to RDBS and BRIDS include, but are not limited to, impacts on number pooling, number porting, exhaustion of the NPA, number routing, and carrier compensation, in addition and other end user customer and carriers impacts. Accordingly, any decision by the Commission in this docket will affect the substantial interests of Time Warner.

For the reasons stated above, Time Warner respectfully requests leave to intervene and full party status in this proceeding.

Respectfully submitted this 15th day of February 2001.
