Re: Docket No. 010511-TC

Dear Ms. Perry:

The Commission received your checks totaling $50.00 for the 2000 Regulatory Assessment Fee (RAF) and your request to cancel your certificate. There are two kinds of cancellations. The first is voluntary, which is normally granted if the company is in good standing with the Commission and does not have a past due balance of the RAF, including statutory penalty and interest charges. The other is involuntary. If a company is not in good standing and has an outstanding balance of the RAF, the Commission normally cancels the certificate on its own motion for a rule violation. It should be noted that any balance owed is forwarded to the Comptroller's Office for further collection efforts.

The RAF is assessed if a certificate is active for any one day during a calendar year. The RAF is due by January 30 of each year, unless the 30th falls on a weekend, then the fee is due by the next working day, for the previous year. If payment for the RAF is mailed after the due date, then statutory penalty and interest charges are applicable.

According to Commission records, the payphone certificate in your name has past due penalty and interest charges totaling $21.00. A breakdown of the charges is attached.

The effective date of a voluntary cancellation is the date that the Commission received a company's request for cancellation. In this case, the Commission did not receive your request until April 27, 2001, therefore, the company will owe the 2001 RAF, even if the company is no longer in business or, in fact, never went into business. Rule 25-24.514, Florida Administrative Code, provides that a company requesting voluntary cancellation must either pay the 2001 RAF or provide a date certain that it will be paid. For example, within 30 days after the Commission Order is issued granting the voluntary cancellation.

Therefore, based on the above information, I cannot recommend a voluntary cancellation of your certificate unless the past due balance is paid. Please respond in writing by May 18, 2001, and
