Re: Certificate No. 3723 (TF067)

Dear Mr. Nobel:

The Commission received your request for cancellation of Certificate No. 3723. There are two kinds of cancellations. The first is voluntary, which is normally granted if the company is in good standing with the Commission and does not have a past due balance of the regulatory assessment fee (RAF), including statutory penalty and interest charges. The other is involuntary. If a company is not in good standing and has an outstanding balance of the RAF, the Commission normally cancels the certificate on its own motion for a rule violation. Any balance owed is forwarded to the Comptroller's Office for collection.

The regulatory assessment fee is assessed if a certificate is active for any one day during a calendar year. The RAF is due by January 30 of each year, unless the 30th falls on a weekend, then the fee is due by the next working day, for the previous year. If payment for the RAF is mailed after the due date, then statutory penalty and interest charges are applicable.

According to Commission records, your company has an outstanding balance of the RAF and/or penalty and interest charges. A breakdown of the charges is attached. Depending upon when your check is postmarked, penalty and interest charges will continue to accrue.

The effective date of a voluntary cancellation is the date that the Commission received a company's request for cancellation. In this case, the Commission did not receive your request until March 23, 2001, therefore, the company will owe the 2001 RAF, even if the company went out of business in 1999. Rule 25-24.514, Florida Administrative Code, provides that a company requesting voluntary cancellation must either pay the 2001 RAF or provide a date certain that it will be paid. For example, within 30 days after the Commission Order is issued granting the voluntary cancellation.

2001 MAY -2 11:10:33
DIVISION OF COMPETITIVE SERVICES

Mr. Ken Nobel

Therefore, based on the above information, I cannot recommend a voluntary cancellation of your certificate unless the past due balance is paid. Please respond in writing within 15 days from the date of this letter and let me know how you wish to proceed. In the meantime, if you have any questions, just let me know. I can be reached at (850) 413-6502-voice, (850) 413-6503-fax, by internet e-mail at pisler@psc.state.fl.us, or at the above address.

Re: Certificate No. 3723 (TF067)

Dear Mr. Nobel:

The Commission received your request for cancellation of Certificate No. 3723. There are two kinds of cancellations. The first is voluntary, which is normally granted if the company is in good standing with the Commission and does not have a past due balance of the regulatory assessment fee (RAF), including statutory penalty and interest charges. The other is involuntary. If a company is not in good standing and has an outstanding balance of the RAF, the Commission normally cancels the certificate on its own motion for a rule violation. Any balance owed is forwarded to the Comptroller's Office for collection.

The regulatory assessment fee is assessed if a certificate is active for any one day during a calendar year. The RAF is due by January 30 of each year, unless the 30th falls on a weekend, then the fee is due by the next working day, for the previous year. If payment for the RAF is mailed after the due date, then statutory penalty and interest charges are applicable.

According to Commission records, your company has an outstanding balance of the RAF and/or penalty and interest charges. A breakdown of the charges is attached. Depending upon when your check is postmarked, penalty and interest charges will continue to accrue.

The effective date of a voluntary cancellation is the date that the Commission received a company's request for cancellation. In this case, the Commission did not receive your request until March 23, 2001, therefore, the company will owe the 2001 RAF, even if the company went out of business in 1999. Rule 25-24.514, Florida Administrative Code, provides that a company requesting voluntary cancellation must either pay the 2001 RAF or provide a date certain that it will be paid. For example, within 30 days after the Commission Order is issued granting the voluntary cancellation.

Re: Certificate No. 3015 (TE578)
Certificate No. 3723 (TF067)

Dear Mr. Nobel:

On March 15, I received a voice mail message from you concerning the above two certificates. I attempted to call you on March 15 and 16, but just received a ring, no answer. In addition, I attempted to e-mail you at nobelki@aol.com, but the e-mail was returned as undeliverable.

You requested a copy of your original Certificate No. 3015 (TE578). Unfortunately, we do not have a copy. The Commission granted a certificate in Docket No. 920075-TC, effective March 17, 1992, in the name of Entel Phone Systems, Inc. All documentation associated with such an old docket has been archived. You may request a copy of the documentation from that docket from the Commission's Division of Records and Reporting by calling (850) 413-6770. There may be a charge for the copies.

In addition, your voice-mail message mentioned Certificate No. 3723 (TF067). Although you did not ask a question in your voice-mail, I got the impression you believed that this certificate was cancelled in 1998. That is not the case. Certificate No. 3723 was granted in Docket No. 940153-TC, effective April 19, 1994, in the name of Entel West Coast - Joint Venture and is still active. To my knowledge, the Commission has not received a request for cancellation of this certificate. A copy of Rule 25-24.514, Florida Administrative Code, is attached for your review.

If you have any questions, just let me know. I can be reached at (850) 413-6502-voice, (850) 413-6503-fax, by internet e-mail at pisler@psc.state.fl.us, or at the above address.

Good afternoon Mr. Nobel: I attempted to call you back, but only received a ring, no answer. In your voice mail yesterday, you requested a copy of the certificate for TE578. Unfortunately, we do not have a copy. The Commission granted Entel's Certificate No. 3015 in Docket 920075-TC. All documentation associated with such an old docket has been archived. You may request a copy of PAA Order No. 25782 or all documentation from that docket from the Commission's Division of Records and Reporting by calling (850) 413-6770. There may be a charge for the copies.

Your voice-mail message also mentioned the certificate for TF067. I got the impression that you believed this certificate had been cancelled in 1998. That is not the case. Certificate No. 3723 was granted in the name of Entel:West Coast - Joint Venture, effective 04/19/94 and is still active. To my knowledge, the Commission has not received a request for cancellation of this certificate. In your voice mail message, you did not ask a question concerning this certificate -- just made the statement that the certificate was cancelled in 1998.

Please call me if you have any questions or wish to request cancellation of Certificate No. 3723 and I will provide you with additional information.
