Anthony R. Brown

President

Mr. Brown has successfully developed telecommunications opportunities both domestically and internationally during the last 20 years. Tony began his career in the early 1980's helping to build TMC, the first national reseller of AT&T long lines service following the breakup of the AT&T monopoly. After several years, TMC was sold to the company that became MCI/Worldcom. Following the successful sale of TMC, Mr. Brown then worked as a consultant for numerous companies, including ITT, LCI, Metromedia, and others, helping to develop long-term business strategies in telecommunications. In early 1990 Tony began to develop, with some long time associates, the first privately owned Russian-American joint venture telephone company. Dal Telecom began providing Russian telephone service following the opening of Russia in the early 1990's. Since helping create Dal Telecom, Tony has negotiated numerous international terminating agreements in several emerging economies. He became ICT Worldwide's President in 2000.

James D. Fishel

Vice President Telecomm

Mr. Fishel has been involved in the telecommunications industry for over twenty years dating back to the pre divestiture of AT&T. Mr. Fishel was instrumental in establishing standards and promulgations for the resale industry in many states and on a federal level in the early 1980's.

Mr. Fishel, with a group of private investors, established and built TRI*TEL Communications in 1984. TRI*TEL was one of the first competitive interexchange carriers to solicit and receive authority for intra lata termination abilities for the resale industry. While at TRI*TEL Fishel also developed the first inbound or toll free service for resale carriers using concentrator devices and the network switches speed calling, now known as "800 with PINs". TRI*TEL was the first resale telephone company to file and receive a 214 international termination abilities from the FCC in 1985. In 1992 TRI*TEL was one of the first World Com acquisitions.

At the request of both the United States and Russian governments Fishel then joined Mr. A. R. Brown (president ICT Worldwide) in the far east of Russia to help in reestablishing the telecommunications infrastructure and to provide a gateway for international calling abilities for the territories that could not access the Russian Ministry network.

Upon completion of the Russian project Fishel returned to the United States and has remained in the telecommunications industry since joining ICT Worldwide. Fishel will oversee the build out of the ICT network on both the domestic and international fronts. Fishel has deployed the backbone TDM network and is working with next generation providers to insure a successful cell and packet based transition as the terminating local companies technologies allow.

Ken Craig

Vice President of Legal/Financial Affairs

Mr. Craig attended Stetson University for Undergraduate School and The University of Mississippi for Graduate and Law School. Currently a member of the State Bar in Mississippi and Texas, Mr. Craig is also licensed to practice before The 5th Circuit Court of Appeals, The 11th Circuit Court of Appeals and numerous Federal District Courts.

Mr. Craig started his own firm in 1981 and it continued to grow as Craig, Sandifer and Associates, P.A. specializing in international business and development for its clients. During this period Mr. Craig became involved in several business ventures including the development of special financial programs for Telecommunication Companies. Continuing to specialize in the telecommunications industry, Mr. Craig founded Tie National Rental and Leasing Company, Inc. which was sold to Tie Communications. Then he worked on the acquisition team for the purchase of Centel Communications by Williams Oil & Gas and upon completion of the acquisition remained as Division President for Williams.

Since leaving Williams, Mr. Craig has consulted with companies helping them through the process of public registration. A strong Legal and Accounting background have provided the base of knowledge and skills required to hold positions of CEO or CFO during the public registration process.

Steven P. Murman
Chief Financial Officer

Mr. Murman joined the Company in April 2001. From February 1995 to March 2001, Mr. Murman served as the Corporate Controller for Shells Seafood Restaurants, Inc., a public company and an operator of as many as 50 restaurants locations in five states. From 1988 to January 1995, Mr. Murman served in the audit department of Deloitte & Touche, LLP as an Audit Manager. Mr. Murman has a Bachelor of Science in Accounting degree from Bowling Green State University and is a Certified Public Accountant.

Leo Bonnes

Director of IT

Leo Bonnes has been with ICT since the fall of 2000. Mr. Bonnes has spent his entire adult life working with and networking computers. He started his career with the United States Air Force in 1979. After attaining the rank of sergeant and leaving the Air Force in 1983 Mr. Bonnes continued to worked in the field of computers and networking. Mr. Bonnes has worked for market leaders in their respective fields including Flight Safety, Boeing, CAE Link and MCA International. Mr. Bonnes brings 23 years of computer experience to ICT.

Susan Gaddis

Director of Executive Affairs

Ms. Gaddis graduated from the University of South Florida in Tampa, Florida in 1994 with two Bachelor of Arts degrees: one in Finance and one in Marketing. Ms. Gaddis was the Director of Outreach for the largest private psychiatric hospital in the Southeast United States located in Clearwater, Florida. In 1997 Ms. Gaddis became the business analyst for a start up electronic commerce company. In addition to defining the marketing strategy, she created strategic alliances with large brick and mortar retailers. She joined ICT Worldwide in October 2000.
