I don't know why Bruce May submitted the Settlement Offer. Kim Caswell is the only one I deal with in this docket. Since the company has not asked that Bruce May be approved as an authorized representative, I would think Kim is the appropriate person.

It was entered in the wrong docket (000362) in CMS. However, I checked and found that it WAS sent to GTECC (now Verizon) and OPC, so the right persons received copies. I've corrected it in CMS.

I have a question about the parties: Bruce May evidently is or was representing Verizon. He filed at least one settlement agreement proposal. However, Kim Caswell at the company responded to OPC's PAA protest/request for hearing. Who is representing the company? Should Bruce May be a party in the docket?

Thanks, Jackie.

So as not to hold up the agenda prep process, we are putting this rec in place in the panel items, though we realize there is a chance the dockets could be reassigned. If the agenda has to be re-arranged tomorrow morning, we will of course do so.

If the dockets remain assigned to the current two different panels, we will have a "challenge" in preparing the vote sheet--and the order(s)!

Please let me know as soon as you hear further.

Thanks again.
