To Whom It May Concern:

It is my sincere pleasure to offer this open letter to the Commission expressing my opinion on a matter of statewide importance that I understand will be considered by the Commission tomorrow, March 13. That issue pertains to Alltel Communications, Inc.'s request that the Commission exercise its authority to consider Alltel's application for designation as an eligible telecommunications carrier, or ETC, in certain rural areas in the State of Florida.

As you well know, the number of eligible consumers in Florida that actually sign up for the Lifeline and Linkup service is low; in fact, dramatically low in comparison with other States. In spite of the efforts of all current stakeholders to increase the number of citizens that take advantage of these services, the number of eligible consumers signing up for Lifeline and Linkup has actually declined in the past few years. By considering applications for ETC status by wireless carriers, like Alltel, the Commission will be fulfilling its public interest responsibilities, which could ultimately lead to an expansion of Lifeline service to consumers. Given the current low wireline Lifeline penetration rates, the Commission has a duty to consider a new approach to solving an age-old problem. Lifeline and Linkup services can be extremely beneficial for some of this State's most needy citizens, and can help people stay connected with family, friends and medical professionals. Telephone service is, in fact, an important lifeline, so to speak, for many of our citizens, and we must make sure that they have every opportunity to access that service on an affordable basis.

As such, I am excited to see that a wireless carrier of Alltel's caliber has expressed interest in becoming an ETC in Florida.

Tomorrow, the Commission has an opportunity to bring new opportunities and ideas to help serve Florida's most needy citizens. I respect the Commission's thoughtful approach to the issue before it, and I look forward to the dawning of a new day in Florida for Lifeline and Linkup consumers.

Sincerely,

Docket No. 060582-TP - Petition of Alltel Communications, Inc. for designation as eligible telecommunications carrier (ETC) in certain rural telephone company study areas located entirely in Alltel's licensed area.

To Whom It May Concern:

As you well know, the Commission is currently scheduled to consider, at its April 24 Agenda Conference, the merits of Alltel Communications, Inc.'s request to be designated as an eligible telecommunications carrier in Florida. There is every indication that approval of Alltel's application will provide significant benefits for Florida's rural and low income consumers. As such, I sincerely hope these profound benefits to our citizens will be given great weight during consideration of this issue and result in expeditious approval of Alltel's applications.

It is certainly no secret that the number of eligible consumers in Florida signed up for Lifeline and Linkup service is intolerably low. While the Commission has recently taken important steps to implement new approaches to try to increase that number, the fact of the matter is that, in recent years, the number of eligible consumers signing up for Lifeline and Linkup has actually declined. As such, it is important that we seize every new opportunity to ensure that eligible citizens have not only an appropriate method, such as automatic enrollment, for taking advantage of these beneficial programs, but also a worthy provider than can meet a variety of service needs for eligible citizens. The entry of Alltel into this arena creates just such an opportunity to try fresh new marketing ideas, as well as the availability of a new product -- wireless service, in an effort to increase the number of consumers that take advantage of these worthwhile programs.
