Mr. Matari,

You can file a name change request by sending an email to Toni Earnhart asking for the name change on your certificate from what it is to what it should be. If you make this request today, it can become effective today. Ms. Earnhart will open a docket and take care of it.

In reference to the current amendment to your interconnection, unbundling, resale, and collocation agreement, AT&T Florida and FLATEL, Inc. will need to submit an additional amendment at their earliest convenience that will reflect the proper name for FLATEL.

If you have any questions, please feel free to let me know.

I wanted to let you know that two of your fictitious names in Florida have expired. If the company plans to continue use of the names, the fictitious names will need to be reinstated at the Division of Corporations. The names in question are "Oscatel" and "Telephone USA" and appear in the company ICA with AT&T.

If the company does not plan to use these fictitious names in the state of Florida, the company should file a request to change its company name at the FPSC at its earliest convenience.

If you have additional questions, please contact me.
