Dear Commissioner

With what is going on in this world nowadays, COVID, people out of work, loved ones lost, families destroyed, how can you even humanely think of jacking up costs? How humane is that? Did you not get effected by this? Have you not lost loved ones, lost your job? Are you not struggling just to survive, going to food banks, asking for help, trying to make ends meet? Really how can you justify doing this? I am disabled I count of others for help to assist me, if I don't have their assistance I don't survive. People are dying left and right in the world now, prices are going higher and higher, how is taking electricity higher where everyone is stuck at home helping us? Basically all it is doing is making FPL and everyone working there richer, its is not effecting none of you at all, how selfish is that

Thank you,
Stacey Green
